Keep a Watch on Invisible Transformations, Watch Exceptional Documentaries

Invisible and gradual; such are the transformations of contemporary society. Those who want to understand them better need to stay on top of things, which is what the Italian directing duo Massimo D'Anolfi and Martina Parenti do not lack, along with humour. Meet the paradoxes and limits of absurdity of today's world in 4 original films from May 12 to 18 for free!

Cannes. Who would not know the unique festival? Film stars, crowds of fans, key distributors concluding important contracts. However, is the media image of the most famous of film festivals real? Look behind the scenes of the festival events from May 19 to 25 and see who wins Doc Alliance Selection Award 2014!

Every street has its story but not every street has its film... Michael Stewart, founder and director of Open City Docs London festival, who has been constantly working both in the field of film and anthropology, knows that too well. DAFilms.com proudly announces to be the first to pick up the baton of the local original My Street Films project. Do not miss the unique chance to watch a selection of UK based documentary filmmakers from May 26 to June 1 for free!

Although the anniversary 45th edition of Switzerland's documentary showcase Visions du Réel is over, it revisits the international scene online via DAFilms.com with an exceptional film retrospective of the local filmmaker Richard Dindo! Meet the uncompromising, critical cinematic perspective of the "director of memory" in the week from June 2 to 8 for free!
