EVENTS OF THE MONTH:

ORIGINAL VIEW OF THE WORLD IN NYON

from April 15 to April 21

An original view of the world is offered through the selection of the best films of the Swiss film festival Visions du Réel Nyon (April 19 - 26). The festival whose tradition dates back to 1969 will present films including the awarded Schildkrötenwut where every frame contributes to the reconstruction of a torn relationship in front of the eye of the camera, and Matthew's Laws that crosses a border into the unknown and mysterious world of autism.

SPACE ODYSSEY AND THUS SPOKE ZARATHUSTRA IN THE FILM ARSY-VERSY

from April 22 to April 28

Slovak director Miro Remo made a film called Arsy-Versy inspired by the Space Odyssey and Straus's Thus Spoke Zarathustra that has won numerous awards all over the world. We present a selection of Remo's films, such as his magic 8mm film The Fighters as well as one of the episodes of the Slovak series about the local cinematography Slovak Cinema – Fear and Tension (bleak prospects of its future).

WORLD INSPIRATION FROM VISIONS DU REEL

from April 29 to May 5

One of the biggest documentary events, Visions du Réel Nyon, will close with a selection of the best world documentaries shown in the section Etat d'Esprit. These will include: At the Edge of the Forest (Growing up in a poor family is not easy. And if your parents are both hopeless alcoholics, it is even more difficult), Démocratie Année Zéro (Tunisian people took only four weeks to topple the hated regime of Ben Ali and, in doing so, paved the way for the "Arab Spring", one of the major geopolitical upheavals of the early 21st century) and also, for example, Nichnastipa'am Lagan (With a light hand held camera, Mograbi continues to question the history of Israel. Everything is still possible.).
