EVENTS OF THE MONTH:

The Miners' Daily Bread

The contrast of two generations living in a region of Slovakia raises the question of what happened in the past and what the future is. The Slovak debut by director Roman Fábian looks for a way towards understanding.

STREAM FOR FREE from June 24 to June 27

About art and freedom both outside and inside

The constrained nature of prisons opens up an infinitude of fantasies and free artistic expression. The environment determines the means of expression. A project of confrontation and dialogue with artists from the outside shows radical differences and a conspiratory divergence from social norms in Roman Sibrť's The Prison of Art.

EDN choice

European Documentary Network is a global network for professionals working with documentary film and TV. Over 1000 members from more than 60 countries have joined EDN. This organisation is open for both newcomers and established filmmakers from around the world. Paul Pauwels, Mikael Opstrup, Cecilie Bolvinkel a Ove Rishøj Jensen from EDN prepared selection of most remarkable films from DAFilms.

WATCH FOR A SMALL FEE from July 1 to July 7

Original films from FIDMarseille

The significant documentary film festival FIDMarseille is about to start; watch the most remarkable festival films from last year's edition with us. Dragooned is an immersive journey that will take you into the heart of this World War Two updated version, following the 509th PIB soldiers' advance into the unexplored and hostile territories of living history. The setting: a mental hospital in Evreux on the eve of its demolition. By way of introduction, a quick and sharp track-out through a window, as a foretaste of what is coming: a journey from outside to inside, carried along by the wind in Les Derniers Hommes.

STREAM FOR FREE from July 8 to July 14

Great retrospective of a director with an original sense of humour: Laila Pakalnina

Laila Pakalnina is one of the most prolific contemporary Latvian directors. She made dozens of documentaries well received at international festivals. In the film Leiputria, the film crew look for new, mutated animal forms living at garbage dumps. This documentary film received the European Film Award. Her feature length films usually have the form of comic, absurd mystification.
