EVENTS OF THE MONTH:

Large retrospective of films by Laila Pakalnina

Until the end of the week DAFilms offers original films by the Lithuanian director Laila Pakalnina. Works of this author of both fiction and documentary, are showcased as part of a large online retrospective. Enjoy unique films made on a garbage dump or an up-to-date version of Cinderella, in which, instead of a prince charming looking for his bride, Soviet investigators search for their victim using a matching shoe.

Portugal about Portugal?

In Portugal films up to 60 minutes are considered short films (compared to other countries where only films up to 30 minutes are shorts). What impression will the Portuguese culture make through this specific format and film choice? Is Portuguese cinematography on the rise? Our selection will reveal more.

STREAM FOR FREE from August 5 to August 11

Young Cinema

In August, DAFilms will live up with new talents. The Film and TV School of the Academy of Performing Arts in Prague - FAMU, will present a selection of the best student works, followed by an event dedicated to film debuts at Fresh Film Fest (International Festival of First Features and Student Films in Prague) and Nisi Masa (European network of associations consisting of young professionals and students from 26 countries).
