Let's celebrate the start of the fall festival season!

A month full of the best of contemporary documentary film is about to start! Four Doc Alliance partner festivals are inviting both local and international audiences to meet new talented directors, emerging producers and progressive distribution trends. DAFilms.com offers you the unique opportunity to watch selected festival films during special weekly events online for free. Are you going to one of the festivals only? Are you planning your film trip for the spring months? Watch DAFilms.com and enjoy the festival fall in the comfort of your home!

Our festival journey across Europe starts at Jihlava IDFF in the Czech Republic. Thanks to the festival, Czech viewers can watch the premiere of the latest film by Danis Tanović, Oscar-winning director, An Episode in the Life of an Iron Picker online for free. International audiences can watch two arthouse films of Czech and Canadian origin. The montage study Prolegomena to Virtual Framing of a Revolution by talented Czech director Petr Hátile will be premiered in the form of a documentary feature The Great Night at Jihlava IDFF.

STREAM FOR FREE from October 24 to 27

A selection of original animated documentary films will introduce the new Animadoc Dove award of the German festival DOK Leipzig. Made by directors from across the globe, the 16 films share the common characteristics of the merging of genres, experimenting with traditional visual and narrative forms and shifting cinematic imagination.

STREAM FOR FREE from October 28 to November 3.

The youngest member of Doc Alliance, Portugal's Doclisboa festival, will offer a retrospective look into its local competition section Portuguese Competition Films of 2012. What films, directors and themes have dominated the past edition and how do they differ from those of 2013? Join us and watch 6 feature-length and 6 short documentaries by the new Portuguese film blood!

STREAM FOR FREE from November 4 to 10.

The last documentary journey will lead to Danish CPH:DOX festival, one of the most interesting long-term platforms of international film cooperation. For 48 hours, viewers will have the unique opportunity to watch 5 new European documentaries, including Google and the World Brain by British journalist and critic Ben Lewis and the film debut Pine Ridge by promising local director Anna Eborn.
