To have a strong director's and political opinion

Let's pay a cinematic tribute to the civil courage of Jan Palach. On January 16, 1969, this student has become a living torch protesting the invasion of Czechoslovakia by the military forces of the Warsaw Pact. Three unique archive and one experimental films provide a documentary perspective of fire as an indomitable element of freedom and of self-immolation as a form of political protest.
